Organization Information

What is the mission/purpose of your organization?

Who will make use of the books? Approximately how many people?

How and where will the books be stored?

Will there be a cost for using the books?

Will you be able to provide photographs that show your books being used?

Can you commit to thanking (electronically or by air mail) the donor who funded your shipment within two weeks of receiving it?

If you work at a school or your organization will be working directly with a school, please answer the following questions regarding the school's status:

How many students per class on average?

Does your school have Title I ranking?

For how many years has your school not met adequate yearly progress (determined by state)?

How do reading test scores at your school compare to your district and state (include percentiles if known)?

Every year IBP receives many requests for books. In your own words, please explain why IBP should select your organization to receive shipments of books. Include information about new or ongoing educational programs in your community that will benefit by having these books available for use. Additionally, if you have a special project in mind regarding this book shipment request, please describe it here. Attach up to two additional sheets as needed.
